

THE GLOBAL LEADERSHIP FORUM

Leadership for Human Development: Istanbul

Quotes from Previous Global Leadership Forums:

- ▶ “Building Europe is building Peace”, Simone Veil, former President of the European Parliament, quoting Jean Monet. 1st GLF. Amman
- ▶ “No one leads by fiat in the modern world” Boutros Boutros-Ghali, Former UN Secretary General. 2nd GLF. Amman.
- ▶ “Non-violent leadership requires maximum openness.” Mikhail Gorbachev, former President of the former Soviet Union. 3rd GLF. Amman.
- ▶ “Leadership requires patience, perseverance, humility, commitment and compromise.” Oscar Arias, former President of Costa Rica. 4th GLF. Istanbul.
- ▶ “We do find leaders in all walks of life” Ajay Chhibber, Director, the World Bank. 5th GLF. Istanbul.
- ▶ “Six Sigma combines leadership and operational excellence to achieve maximum success.” Muhsen Menguturk. Partner, Breakthrough Management. 5th GLF.
- ▶ “By deliberately bringing in turbulence, organizations are actually embracing innovations.” Stan Gryskievicz, former Vice-President of the Center for Creative Leadership. 6th GLF. Istanbul.
- ▶ “Leadership development grounded in creativity and the mind process of the arts can serve as a catalyst for transformative thinking in leadership.” Mr. John Cimino, President of Creative Leaps International. 6th GLF. Istanbul
- ▶ “Globalisation requires that we expand our horizons and learn to appreciate other modes of expression and behaviour.” Mrs. Harriet Fulbright, former Executive Director of the Committee for the Arts and Humanities in the Clinton Administration. 7th GLF. Istanbul.
- ▶ “What is the most important qualification for public office? I hope all of you will climb the political ladder and, as you do, offer integrity as your foremost qualification. Each of you can make a difference.” US Congressman Paul Findley speaking at the 7th Global Leadership Forum in Istanbul, June, 2005.
- ▶ “Ultimately leadership is a value concept that cannot be separated from human development- a concept inextricably linked to peace, democracy, and development.” Adel Safty, Founding UNESCO Chair of Leadership and President of the Global Leadership Forum